

DENTAL, VISION & HEARING

1 Do I really need Dental, Vision & Hearing insurance?

Oral and ocular health can be key indicators in detecting early stages of many health issues. It's important to have regular dental cleaning, vision and hearing exams for optimum health.

2 Is Dental, Vision & Hearing insurance costly?

Most DVH plans are actually quite economical, and you have the option to pick and choose how much coverage you'd like. Many plans also allow for a 30 day free look period, which gives you flexibility to review the plan and make any necessary changes.

3 Doesn't Medicare cover Dental, Vision & Hearing?

Original Medicare Parts A and B do not cover dental, vision or hearing. Medicare Supplement insurance also does not cover these items, therefore, making Dental, Vision and Hearing insurance a necessity for most seniors.

4 Do I have to get all three?

No, you have the option to purchase plans separately, but many times carriers offer discounts with bundled plans encompassing coverage for all three. If you only want Dental insurance or Vision insurance, for example, we can help you find a policy that fits your budget and your needs.

We're here to answer all your questions about Dental, Vision & Hearing insurance, and to help you select the best policy for your needs. We work with A rated carriers and our goal is to find you the most cost-effective solution, based on your health and financial situation.
