Who is The Brokerage Resource

The Brokerage Resource is an independent insurance agent's broker. We are here to assist independent insurance agents by giving them access to multiple insurance carriers and products. We have a deep commitment to the independent agent. We have 26 years of experience helping agents select the best products and carriers to help solve their client's needs. We make it easy to recommend the right product and carrier every time.

We also provide back office support for the independent insurance agent. We provide a world class arsenal of tools and training. The benefit to the agent is the ability to keep up to date on current market trends, ideas and developments. We focus on products and sales strategies to help both the agent and their clients achieve the results they both desire.
